

St. Aubyn's School

Bravely, Faithfully, Happily

Class Teacher (KS2)

Full time, Permanent

Start date: September 2024

An exciting opportunity has arisen for an energetic and enthusiastic KS2 Teacher to join our team here at St. Aubyn's. During our selection process applicants will be required to demonstrate their:-

- commitment to high standards of teaching and learning.
- ability to be an excellent classroom practitioner, able to inspire and motivate our pupils to achieve their full potential.
- desire to take any opportunity to improve their practice and to develop their own career.
- ability to work as a team member, supporting the ethos, aims and vision of the School.

The successful applicant will join a friendly, enthusiastic, hard-working team, who consistently strive to improve teaching and learning, and continue to raise standards. Benefits include reduced school fees, free car parking and lunches.

For a full job description and to apply please visit our website www.staubyns.com (CVs alone not accepted).

Closing Date: 11.59pm, Monday 15th April 2024

We reserve the right to appoint at any time within the advertising period

The School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. This post is exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and the amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975, 2013 and 2020, and the successful applicant will be subject to appropriate child protection screening including an Enhanced DBS check.

St. Aubyn's (Woodford Green) School Trust
A company limited by guarantee

Registered in England and Wales No. 1218766 Charity No. 270113
Registered address Bunces Lane, Woodford Green, Essex, IG8 9DU

Job description

Job title	Class Teacher (KS2)
Department	Upper Prep School
Reports to	Headmaster and Head of Upper Prep School
Line manages	N/A
Job summary Motivate children to achieve and excel in a secure environment, which promotes independent learning and personal development; set high expectations and have the pastoral care and academic progress of each child as their first priority. Support the ethos and aims of the School as defined by the Mission Statement, the School Improvement Plan and the Teaching and Learning Policy; support all initiatives, policies and procedures decided by the staff, the Senior Management Team and the Governing Body.
Key duties and responsibilities Teaching and Learning <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Plan for pace, progression and differentiation within lessons and across a series of lessons, according to individual children's needs and abilities; employ constructive and effective behaviour management strategies which promote independence and self-control, using the school's rewards and sanctions strategies. • Support individual children's needs and talents through the provision of learning support and extension, in accordance with the school's Additional Learning Framework. • Deploy resources and Learning Support Assistants to best effect; use ICT in lessons and in planning regularly; provide an attractive, well-organised and clearly structured learning environment; make use of such resources as the school's library Satchel One. • Mark and assess in line with the School's expectations and procedures; subject data to statistical analysis in order to inform planning and objectives for individual children and for curriculum development. • Set homework according to the planned curriculum and in line with school policy and practice. Wider Professional Effectiveness <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Record and report on each child's progress according to the School's frameworks, including ISAMS, the School's database; provide reports, which are intelligible, coherent, consistent and constructive to their audience – colleagues, pupils, and parents or outside stake-holders. • Maintain an up-to-date knowledge of the subject and curriculum taught and of wider and national strategies, policies and curriculum developments in order to inform planning and practice. • Establish positive relationships with parents and carers through formal and informal meetings and other contacts, such as emails, always with the best interests of the child at heart; actively support the St Aubyn's School Society (SASS). • Plan and communicate effectively with colleagues and the wider school, making full use of emails, the Week Ahead Sheet, the termly calendar, the School's website, ICT network and Satchel One

- Fulfil rota duties, such as break duty; provide cover for staff according to the School's cover arrangements and as the need arises; actively support the School's extra-curricular programme.
- Be proactive and provide evidence with regard to their own continuing professional development (CPD) and performance management; reflect continuously on their own performance in order to improve; contribute to staff meetings as part of professional development; support curriculum planning and staff mentoring and coaching as a team member; promote and share best practice at all times.
- Display high levels of integrity, personal organisation and inter-personal skills in fulfilling all professional commitments; be in school during the 'school day' (ie when the school is in session) and such other times as are necessary to meet all commitments; be appropriately and professionally dressed at all times; actively follow the Staff Handbook in all contacts with all staff and stakeholders.

Safeguarding

- Be aware and proactive with regard to the identification of child abuse and neglect, and school and local child protection procedures; be aware and proactive with regard to all health and safety guidance and issues, following all school procedures, such as risk assessments for the workplace and for school outings.
- The postholder will be required to submit an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Check (DBS).
- The postholder is responsible for promoting and safeguarding the welfare of all children and young person's they are responsible for, or come into contact with.

St Aubyn's policy and procedure

- The postholder is required to actively follow and abide by all St Aubyn's policies and procedures including Equal Opportunities, Safer Recruitment and Child Protection, and will maintain an awareness and observation of Fire and Health & Safety Regulations.

The postholder will carry out any other duties as are within the scope, spirit and purpose of this job description as requested by the line manager or Head of Department/Section.

If during the course of time the duties and responsibilities should change, the job description will be reviewed and amended in consultation with the postholder.

Aptitudes
• A cheerful, friendly and enthusiastic personality.	✓
• A positive outlook.	✓
• An effective team member.	✓
• Instinct and initiative.	✓
• An interest in special needs provision.	✓
• Punctuality and commitment to the school.	✓
• A commitment to ensuring that all St Aubyn's pupils meet their potential.	✓
• The potential to offer or support an after-school activity in an area of interest.	✓

March/2024

